About Me

About Me

I'm Prince

Full Stack Developer

I'm currently pursuing B.Tech in Computer Science from SAITM, Gurugram (affiliated with MDU, Rohtak). I am a passionate Frontend Developer with a strong foundation in C and C++ programming, and a growing expertise in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.

I'm highly interested in Web Development, and my goal is to improve continuously, learn new technologies, and eventually contribute to impactful projects in the tech industry.

My main focus is on mastering Data Structures & Algorithms (DSA) and building real-world web applications.

Currently learning: Java, React, Backend Development, and improving my coding skills!
